MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Narcotics & Congressional Travel

1. Congressmen Steele and Murphy, accompanied by Jack Brady of the staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, will be traveling to Germany and Latin America in January, so I was informed this morning by Walter Weiss, CCINC Congressional Relations Coordinator.

2. According to Weiss, the trio will visit Germany 3-6 January (to Frankfurt and then to military posts, looking into the question of drug abuse among troops in Europe), and then will go to Latin America 6-19 January. The itinerary in Latin America will definitely include Mexico, Panama, and Paraguay; other places are not yet firm but may include Uruguay, Bolivia, Ecuador, and Peru.

3. Weiss passed the above for our information; there was no request for action of any sort by us.
